ADMINISTRATION

The Board of Education extends its congratulations to the Student body of the Chesaning school for its accomplishments in the many activities during the school year 1949-50

The Student body in return is grateful to the Board of Education for its constant interest in the welfare of the school, doing everything possible to make the Chesaning School outstanding.

Edward W. Dietzel
Superintendent

Cecil C. Ringler
Principal

Another school year opened with few faculty changes from the previous year. Miss Dorothy Seward, seventh grade teacher, did not return. She finished work on her degree at Central State, Mt. Pleasant. Mrs. McFall, first-second grade teacher, preferred the seventh grade. Mrs. Mildred West was secured to teach the extra section of the first grade, and Mrs. Eloise Dekker the combination of second, fourth, and fifth, at the start of the new year when the new building was completed.

Interest in forensics, which has been increasing each year, received renewed emphasis this year after Don Gray's winning first place in the Regional Forensic contest in 1949. The local contest was held March 7th and 9th with 18 students participating. Joe Matta with "Common Sense" and Barbara Danek with "All Americans, But" were the winners in the oratorical declamations. In dramatic reading Max O'Rourke with "Joe Smith, American" and Phyllis Wille with "Sorry, Wrong Number" were chosen. The winning orators were Marion Burch with "Family Foundations" and Don Gray with "Democratic Ideal."

The District Contest with Elsie, Millington and Chesaning represented was held at Chesaning March 29 with Mr. Blue as chairman. Chesaning emerged with two first place winners and three seconds in the four contests. Barbara Danek and Don Gray, by thus winning first places, represented Chesaning at the Regional Contest at Otter Lake in April.

On the evening of April 19 a fine feature was added to the speech program when Mrs. Laura Stewart inaugurated a Freshman Forensic Contest which was attended by the parents and public. Added enthusiasm was stimulated by a trip with forty-five students to the Saginaw Valley District Contest.

The Student Council is a member of the National Association of Student Councils again this year. Under the direction of Mr. Ringler, the council carries out its duties through committees. The committees and the chairman of each this year are: Athletic Planning, Max Palmer; Assembly Program, Barbara Ringler; School Party, Barbara Ruff; Civic Service and Problems, Eugene Collis; Study Hall and Corridor, Carole Holt.

The membership of the council consists of five seniors, four juniors, three sophomores, two freshmen, and one each from the eighth and seventh grades. These members are elected as representatives by their respective classes. The President and vice-president are elected by the student body. The officers this year are: President, Dale Alden; Vice-President, John Chludil, Secretary, Roberta Richardson; Treasurer, Suzanne Buzzard.

REVEALER

Standing--Kimmel, Bolf, Butcher, Kettler, Hartman, Karwat, Barta, Cowan, Wardwell, Wesley, Mrs. Ellis. Seated--Decker, Holzhausen, Schoch, Smeaton, Sackrider, Sedlar, Persons, Walworth.

The second year typing students, under the supervision of Mrs. Vera Ellis, make up the Revealer Staff. The class printed six issues and one special issue of the paper this year. Editor was Wilma Cowan; Business Editor, Carol Walworth; Cartoonists Catherine Kettler and Donna Holzhausen; Sports Editors, Marian Schoch and Ida Jane Persons; Make-up Editor, Wilma Kimmel. The rest of the class were typists.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The National Honor Society, Chapter No. 1577, organized in 1935, now contains one hundred five. Nine new members were chosen this year from the Junior and Senior classes by the High School faculty. The members received ratings on character, service, scholarship, and leadership.

The Y-Teens, under the leadership of Mrs. Rachel Stewart, have had a very busy and interesting year.

The officers for the year were: President, Laraine Conklin; Vice-President, Betty Schultz; Secretary, Darlene Bliss; and Treasurer, Charmaine Studer.

The usual main event of the year was the Mother-Daughter Banquet on May 17. Other activities were: hearing speakers, doing artistic work, an initiation party held at Mrs. Stewart's home, sending two girls to the Midwinter Conference and a girl to summer camp.

OH, PROMISE ME

After many weeks of hard practice, the seniors, under the direction of Mr. Ellis, proved their efforts were not in vain by presenting "Oh, Promise Me!" on April 14.

Applause, laughter and many comments indicated that this play was as good as any put on in the local school in recent years. The play was given before an audience of about 800 people.

Between acts, Mr. Sharp and the String Ensemble presented several numbers.

Jack Richards and Catherine Kettler did excellent work in the two leading parts. Principal contributors to the humor situations were Ida Jane Persons and Barbara Ruff who did their best to catch the millionaire playboy. Martha Greenwalt, mother of one of them, brought along to help catch the boy friend made the scenes riotous. The supporting cast, all of whom did commendable work, consisted of: Jim Sleno, John Hunt, Marian Schoch, Terrill Whitney, Wilma Kimmel, Rosemary Hartman, and Roberta Richardson.
